

01 Stockholder Interview

A stakeholder interview is a qualitative method for gathering insights from people involved in or affected by a project. It uncovers their needs, expectations, pain points, and goals to guide solutions that meet real requirements.

